Margie Mitchell promoted to Senior Vice President/Chief Operations Officer of KSC Federal Credit Union

Merritt Island, Florida (January 14, 2008)

Kennedy Space Center Federal Credit Union is proud to announce that Margie Mitchell has been promoted to Senior Vice President/Chief Operations Officer. Mitchell has been a team member with KSCFCU for 18 years. She began her career with KSCFCU as a teller, and has since worked in lending as Vice President of Loans. Mitchell has worked in many aspects of the credit union including Vice President Member Services and was the Branch supervisor at the Titusville Branch for many years. Prior to her career at KSCFCU, Mitchell worked for eight years at Tinker Federal Credit Union in Oklahoma. She earned her Certified Credit Union Executive designation in 1997.

“Margie’s hard work, dedication, leadership and excellent knowledge of operations has earned her this promotion” says Janice Hollar, President/CEO of KSCFCU. “This latest promotion to SVP/COO reflects our continuing confidence in Margie’s abilities and long term commitment to the credit union.”

“I work with a great team here at KSC Federal Credit Union. I’ve enjoyed watching the credit union grow through the years, and I will continue to provide our members with exceptional service that enhances their financial lives and futures,” says Mitchell.

Mitchell has been a Titusville resident for 18 years. She is married with two children and enjoys spending time with her two grandchildren.

Kennedy Space Center Federal Credit Union is a full service community credit union with twelve branch locations throughout Brevard and Volusia counties.
