KSC Federal Credit Union Celebrates Opening of New Palm Bay Branch

Merritt Island, Florida (August 28, 2008)

Kennedy Space Center Federal Credit Union held grand opening celebrations for its newly remodeled Palm Bay branch located at 5225 Babcock Street in Palm Bay. The credit union celebrated first with an after-hours ribbon-cutting ceremony for the people who worked on the project, chamber of commerce ambassadors and area businesses. Palm Bay Mayor John Mazziotti stopped in for the celebration and was on hand to help welcome the credit union to its new location.

More than 400 people attended the member celebration which included a visit from the Palm Bay Fire Department with tours of a fire engine, a live radio remote, food, beverages, popcorn, a bounce house and face-painting for the children. Everyone was invited to enter the grand prize drawing of a Dell laptop computer. The first 200 people to arrive on grand opening day were treated to free gifts ranging from credit union logo items to gift certificates from local restaurants, gas cards and more.

"We are very pleased with the results of the remodel," says Janice Hollar, President and CEO of KSC Federal Credit Union.
