KSC Federal Credit Union Appoints Hudson as Chief Information Officer

Merritt Island, Florida (October 11, 2007) - Kennedy Space Center Federal Credit Union has selected Grady (Mac) Hudson as Chief Information Officer. Hudson is responsible for planning and implementing all Information Technology strategy and electronic delivery services.

Previously, Hudson was the Director of eCommerce with Fiserv Corporation, a Fortune 500 company, which serves over 17,000 financial institutions worldwide. Prior to that, Hudson worked at Kings Bay Submarine Base in Georgia as their computer operations manager. He holds a B.A. in Finance from the University of North Florida and a Masters Degree in Information Technology from the University of Phoenix. He has been working in the financial data processing industry for more than 24 years. Hudson also served four years in the US Air Force from 1976-1980.

"I'm very proud to be a part of a team that takes such an active role in the community and is so focused on providing quality service and products to its members," said Hudson. "My goals are to use technology to help facilitate the advancement of the credit union mission across all departments and to continue to build the infrastructure necessary to support that mission."

Hudson grew up in Lineville, Alabama and currently resides in Melbourne. He enjoys spending time with his wife Janice, son Keifer and daughter Jennifer.

Kennedy Space Center Federal Credit Union is a full service community credit union with twelve branch locations throughout Brevard and Volusia counties. Membership is open to all who live, work or worship in Brevard or Volusia.
