KSC Federal Credit Union Employees Donate to “Toys For Tots”

Merritt Island, Florida (December 18, 2008)

Kennedy Space Center Federal Credit Union employees recently reached out to the Marine Corp in their efforts to help needy local families during the holiday season. Employees held a dress down day and raised more than $400 which was used to purchase toys for all age ranges to be donated to “Toys For Tots.” Cpl. VanBuren of the US Marine Corp stopped by the Merritt Island branch to pick up the load of toys just in time for Christmas, and KSCFCU employees were happy to help load them into his truck.

“We hope a lot of kids are going to have a better Christmas this year because of all the wonderful donations from local businesses. We’re happy to be able to assist the “Toys For Tots” toy drive and make a difference,” stated Kelly Haskins, Assistant VP of Marketing for KSCFCU. “Our employees have very big hearts and are always happy to help the community. That’s what we’re all about.”

Kennedy Space Center Federal Credit Union is a full service community credit union with twelve branch locations throughout Brevard and Volusia counties.
